

Post-Doctoral researcher and lecturer in European and Global Governance (E13 TV-L)

The Bavarian School of Public Policy (Hochschule für Politik, HfP) at the TUM School of Governance (GOV) focuses on future-oriented, transdisciplinary, and applied research and teaching. The Chair of European and Global Governance is looking for a post-doctoral researcher and lecturer. The successful candidate will be engaged in the following tasks and have the qualifications specified below.

Tasks:

- Research and teaching in European and Global Governance, with a focus on International Organizations and Global Economic Governance
- Teaching and supervising graduate and undergraduate students at HfP/GOV
- Interdisciplinary research at the intersection between Politics and Technology, which includes joint publications with the chair holder and the preparation of grant applications at the national and European levels
- Support of the chair on administrative, research, and teaching related issues

Qualifications:

- Outstanding doctoral degree in Political Science or Economics
- Excellent academic record with relevant high-level publications
- Academic advising and teaching experience
- Training and expertise in quantitative and/or qualitative methods
- Ability to work in an international team
- English language proficiency
- Sufficient language skills in German for independent teaching
- Successful record in third-party funding acquisition is an asset

Salary will be paid according to remuneration level 13 of the wage agreement for public service in the federal states (TV-L13). The post is full-time on a fixed term contract for 3 years (with the possibility of prolongation). Applicants with disabilities will be given preferential treatment if qualifications are by and large equal. The Bavarian School of Public Policy seeks to increase the number of women in areas in which they are underrepresented. Therefore, we particularly encourage qualified women to apply. The Bavarian School of Public Policy further aims to hire more people with disabilities and encourages them to apply.

For more information please contact:

Eugenia da Conceição-Heldt (eugenia.heldt@hfp.tum.de)

Applications including a motivation letter, CV, list of publications, credentials, two letters of recommendation, and one selected publication should be submitted electronically (single PDF file) by June 16, 2017 to: ursula.fischer@hfp.tum.de